Council Should Consider

Council should give direction to Staff on planning for the next State of the City.

Background

Council discussed the State of the City event at their previous worksession, that information is attached under Attachment A. Council will need to decide on the timing of the event, it has been held in the fall the last number of years. Should Council want to hold the event in the fall, Staff will need that direction this evening to prepare and have a draft presentation ready for the August worksession.

Budget Impact
